Date of experience (used when sharing on our social media platforms):

A couple came and received a word about God's order in their life and surrendering and. This word resonated particularly to him, who was very tired and distant from God due to previous situations and disagreements in his church. Yet, after God's word he decided to bring down his ego any pride and lack of forgiveness and reconcile with God and remembered how much God loved him and he was ministered / touched by Holy Spirit and decided to come back to church.

We met a group of girls and one of them was very creative and God spoke about her gift of drawing and how she is loved by her parents. and we prayed for them and they were very encouraged
