Three teenage girls came up to us, I shared a word for two of them (~~she~~<sup>a team member</sup> took the third one under her wing). They were really encouraged and joyful, we came round and prayed with her.

The last guy I ministered to really touched my heart. I had a word for him about opening up and allowing others to see deeper layers of him, to let others love him the way he loves them.

I could see it really touched him and he started tearing up a bit.
